

RAPID RESPONSE SERVICES

SETA Sacramento Works not only assists you with hiring needs but is also there for you when your company is facing business cutbacks, workforce downsizing or company .

Our team will coordinate services to assist workers in finding new jobs or receiving training for new careers. This gives you the opportunity to provide employees a direct link to local re-employment and training networks.

For more information email:
William.Walker@seta.net or
Lorna.Devine@seta.net

Benefits to the Employer:

- Better employee morale and productivity during transition
- Confidentiality concerning your business decisions
- Coordination with outplacement services that you may provide
- No red tape for you to handle
- On-site assistance
- Services provided at no cost

Benefits to the Employee:

- Information about regional services to assist them in finding new jobs
- Information about training opportunities
- Professional help with their job search
- Services provided at no cost

FOLLOW
US

